

UP-TO-DATE
AND NEWSYR. Edgren's
COLUMN

The Meeting To-Night Between McAllister and Gibbons Looks More Like a Real Scrap Than Anything Scheduled in Many Months.

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World). This one to-night—McAllister and Gibbons—doesn't turn out to be a boxing session, it's put before a bunch of kings, what's the use of boxing 'em?

That's what we're all saying. There have been other matches accompanied by high expectations, and when they were over we looked back and remarked, "Well, they had a couple of good punches, anyhow." Once in a while a much looked forward to match is right up to expectations. But that's only once in a while. The rest of the time we get disappointed instead of action. There was that Gibbons-McGearty affair, for instance. Mike jumped away from McGearty like a rabbit from a rattlesnake, and that's about all Mike did do, except in the last round. Then he gave us a sample of what he could have done if his heart hadn't slipped a cog. You see, McGearty had been knocking out those visiting middleweight champions in a round each, and Mike knew all about that fatterer, and didn't particularly like it.

But this time it really looks as if the fight might be a fight. If we wanted to point all the reasons we'd have to start our own ink factory. But there are two or three that might be slipped in here without taking too much room.

First—Gibbons knows McAllister hasn't shown a McAllister punch.

Second—McAllister is so fast and aggressive that Mike couldn't get away if he wanted to; he'll have to scrap.

Third—Mike is so fast and such a hard hitter that McAllister will have to fight his "best" and judging from samples that "best" must be something fairly colossal.

THE style in which McAllister whipped Battling Levinsky has given the boxing fans a notion that Mike Gibbons is up against the hardest proposition he ever struck. McAllister isn't a one punch fighter. He works every kind of a punch, and his defense is about as perfect as any boxer ever needed. The style he plays for the body fully as much as for the head. Like Mike, he doesn't jump around very much, although he is quick enough on his feet when he wants to use them. And I must confess that I disagree with the general impression that McAllister hasn't a punch. He whipped Levinsky several times, and there more than the heavyweights have done, as a rule. McAllister was most of his amateur fights with quick knock-outs, which shows that he has the punch when he needs it. A fighter may become clever and get out of the habit of using a crushing punch, but if he ever had one he always carries it with him, and can bring it out on occasion.

Mike is a finisher. He seldom lets a fighter get away if he finds the right opening. Mike's great specialty is slipping punches through holes in the other fighter's defense. He's a wonder at it. He can move. It's a real treat to see him handle those fellows who fold their arms over their faces and pull their heads in like turtles. Mike picks around until he gets a small opening, and then he hits them through like a bullet into the center hole of a cast iron target in a shooting gallery. There's a real target punch with Mike. He doesn't waste any.

The winner to-night is to be matched with George Chip, who knocked out Mike twice—that is, if Chip is willing.

I think that all the nimble press agents are sending out notices to the effect that the winner of some approaching wrestling tournament is to be matched with Frank Gotch.

Nobody knows better than the press agents that the notice is a plain fake, for the winner is not to be matched with Frank Gotch. Nobody is to be matched with Frank Gotch. The latter gave out again three days ago, in Chicago, a public statement that he has built up a business that takes all of his time and is bringing him in a lot of money, and that he'll never wrestle another match. "I know I could clean up about $25,000 in a month or two," said Gotch, "but I'd have to put in a lot of time at hard training first, and it wouldn't pay me."

Frank Gotch is out of it, definitely and finally. He isn't anxious to wrestle again, and probably nobody is going to lose weight with worrying over it if he doesn't.

EVERY person in the U. S. will be insane in 400 years," predicts an eminent authority.

Oh, I don't know. I won't.

JAKE DAUBERT has refused $25,000 for a three year contract with the Federal League. Well, if a fellow can't take a thing he might as well have the satisfaction of getting in a good, determined refusal, anyhow.

NEW WORLD'S RECORDS BY SKATER MATHIESEN.

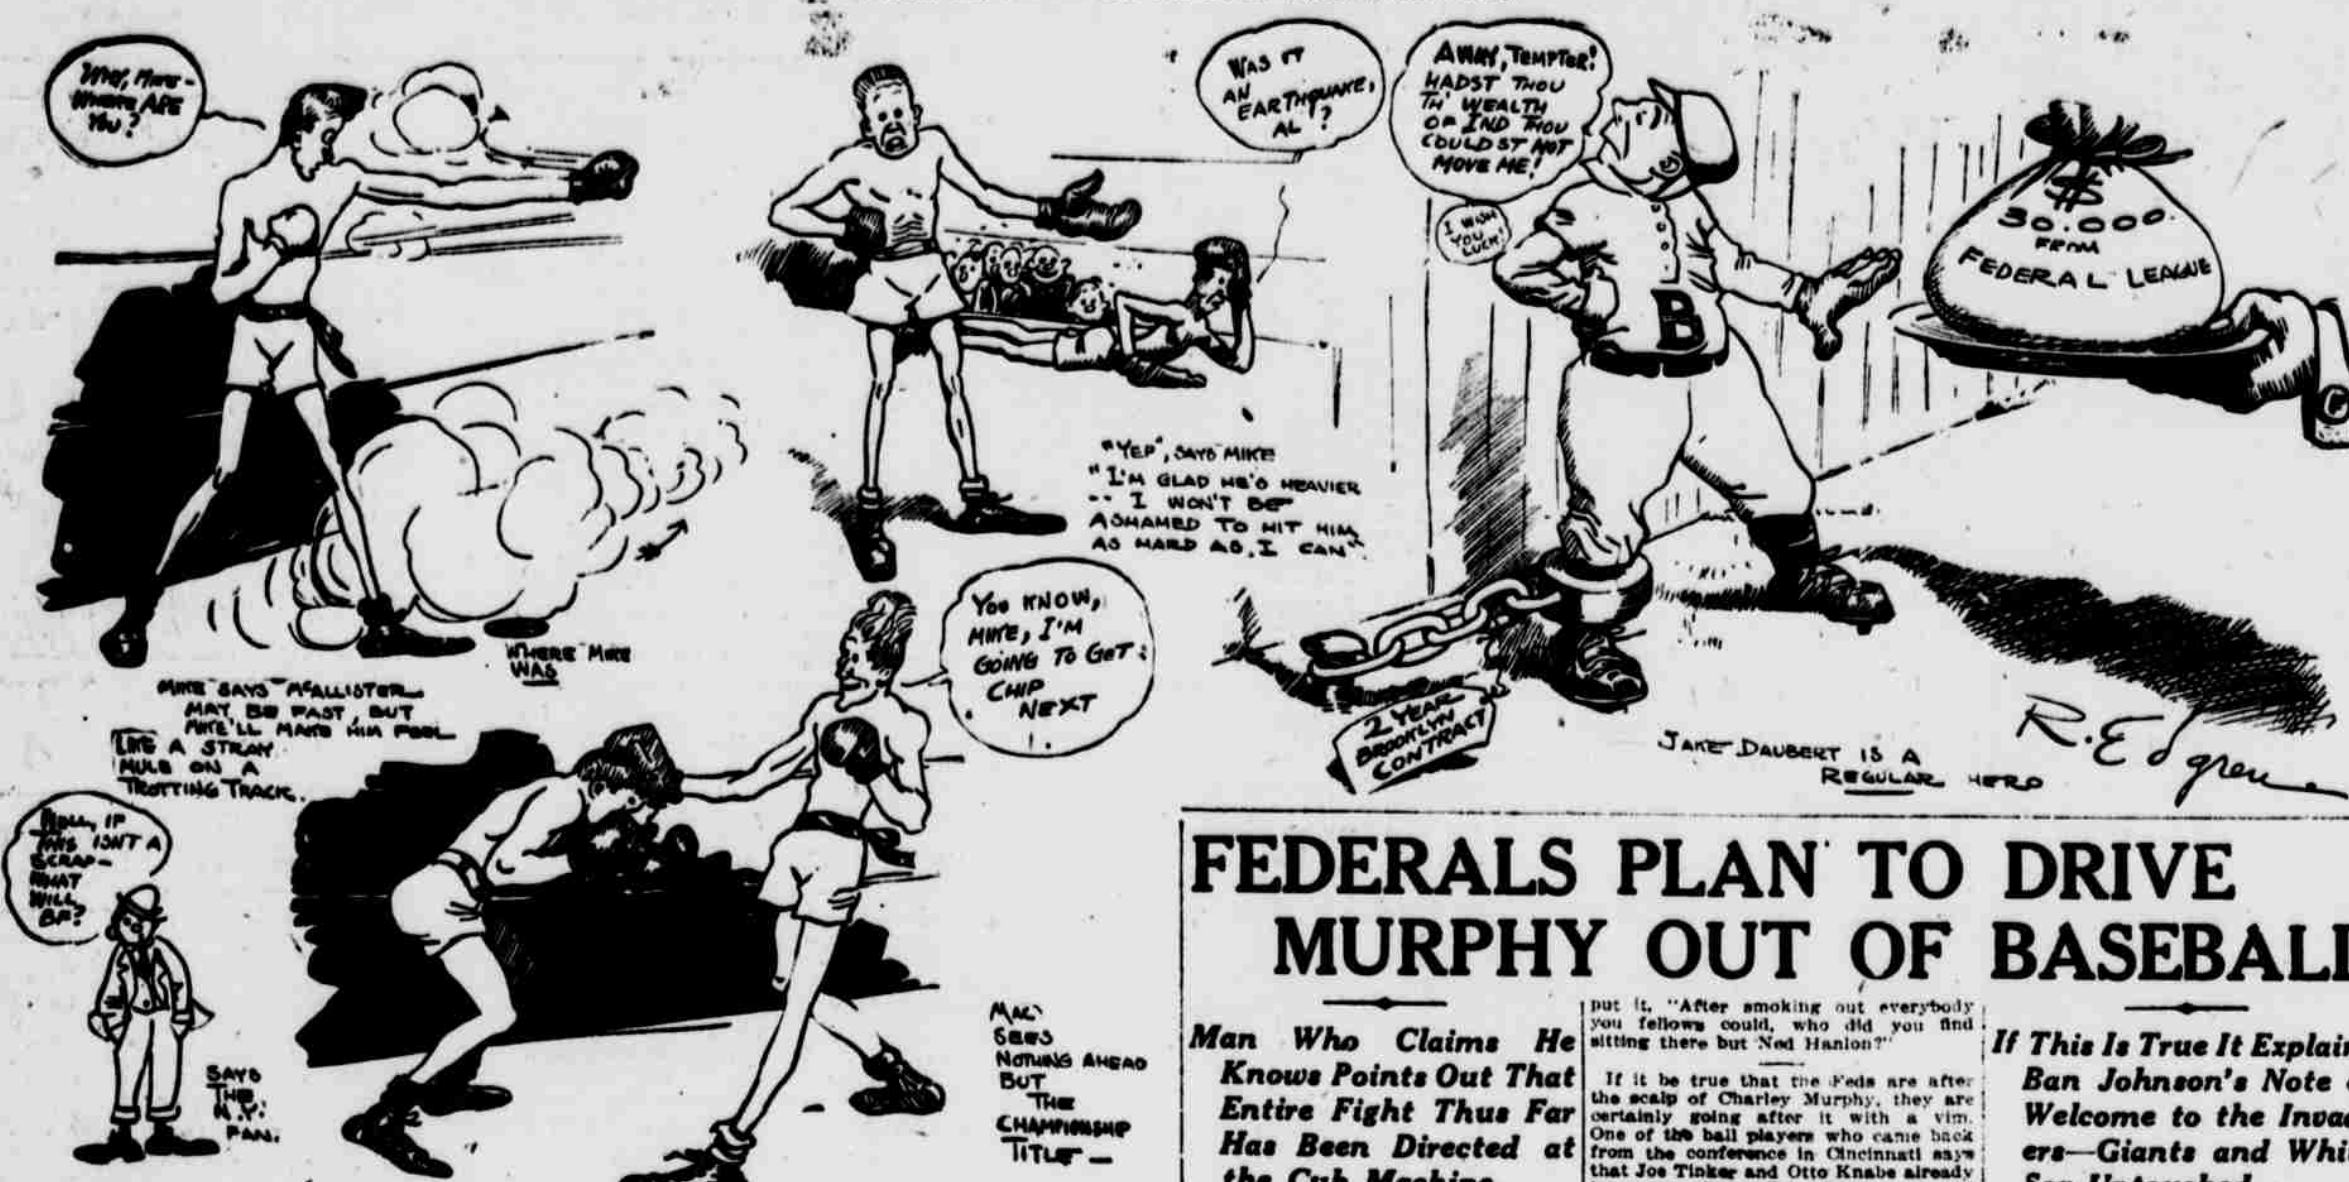

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Oscar Mathiesen yesterday set two world's skating records. He skated 100 meters in 17.4 seconds and 1,000 meters in 2:12.4 seconds. The previous records were 17.4 seconds and 2:12.4 seconds.

BEST SPORTING PAGE IN NEW YORK

EDITED BY ROBERT EDGREN

MIKE AND "MAC" MAKE PREDICTIONS

Copyright, 1914, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

FEDERALS PLAN TO DRIVE MURPHY OUT OF BASEBALL

Man Who Claims He Knows Points Out That Entire Fight Thus Far Has Been Directed at the Cub Machine.

By Bosman Bulger.

THERE is a persistent underground rumor among the wisest set along Broadway that Ban B. Johnson knows more about the plans of the Federal League than would appear on the surface. If that be true, his friends and associates are very much interested in the success of each other's team during last season. They were coupled in the betting against Evers when the trouble broke with Murphy.

It is true that the Feds are after the scalp of Charley Murphy, they are certainly going after it with a vim. One of the ball players who came back from the conference in Cincinnati says that Joe Tinker and Otto Knebe already have ten of the Cub players and will get more. It is well known that Tinker has deflected Murphy, personally, ever since the famous Chance-Evers-Tinker squabble that broke up the old combination.

The one thing that puzzles the old-timers, however, is why Tinker took King Cole away from Frank Chance.

Joe and Chance are the closest of friends and were very much interested in the success of each other's team during last season. They were coupled in the betting against Evers when the trouble broke with Murphy.

In the mean time the Pittsburgh Federal League declares that Jimmy Sheppard is ready to sign a contract as manager of that club and will fix up the papers to-day or to-morrow at a big salary. Sheppard has been in Florida, but hurried away in response to a telegram.

The signing of Sheppard at Pittsburgh, the chances are, will bring on a lawsuit that will put the Feds in a rather unenviable light as a starter.

Desnon Phillips, the old Pirate pitcher, who managed the Pittsburgh Federals last year, claims to have a three-year contract, and if Sheppard gets the job the Desnon says he will use the Feds as a team for breach of contract.

Charley Ebbetts sends a postcard which is postmarked San Juan, Porto Rico. He says, "Am having the time of my life," which would naturally lead us to believe that he hadn't heard about the loss of Joe Tinker or the offer to Jake Daubert.

Frank Farrell has about recovered from the loss of King Cole. The signed contracts of Fritz Mabel and Ray Caldwell have come in and they are the world and taking things easy if they didn't know their interests were not to be molested?

I admitted I hadn't thought of that, and this man with the mysterious knowledge advised me to "take a tumble to the rear dock."

The man whose scalp the Feds are after," he went on, "is Charley Murphy, and they'll put him out of business as sure as you're born. Everybody in baseball is sore on that fellow, and he would not get much sympathy, even in his own league, if his whole team was smashed. The White Sox are favoring out there and will not be bothered. If you'll notice, the man Weegham, who is putting up most of the dough for the Chicago Federal League team, is a close personal friend of Comiskey. One of the most popular of his string of eating and drinking places is near the White Sox park. He wants to cut into the business of Murphy and the Cubs—not the White Sox."

Why are they laying off the Giants?" I asked.

"Because it's the popular team in New York, and as the Feds are not going to put a club anywhere around New York there's no use in getting themselves in a fight when they don't have to. Did you notice," he asked, "how quickly Jake Daubert declared himself on the jumping question? The answer to that is that Gilmore and the gang notified the Pittsburgh Federal League that they wouldn't sign any more jumping contracts that were already signed. Daubert didn't have a chance of getting any dough after Gilmore got on the wire."

NED HANLON HAS BANKROLL TO INVEST IN PLAYERS.

The fact that Ned Hanlon is out with a bankroll to invest in players would tend to carry out this belief. Hanlon, when it comes to baseball, is as wise as a tree full of owls, and he is not the least bit afraid of putting up any large chunk of his own money on a proposition that is still uncertain. Incidentally, it is generally conceded that Hanlon is the proudest behind the new league.

As my second proposition

To the Sporting Editor:

Will you kindly let me know if Gunboat Smith ever fought Jim Flynn and who won? And did Williams ever fight Johnny Coulton? Who won?

MAX MILLER.

Gunboat Smith stopped Jim Flynn.

Did Williams have a slight lead over Coulton in no-decision ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden Oct. 10, 1912.

To the Sporting Editor:

I will be nineteen years old in January. I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, weigh 154 pounds. Is that good weight, and if not how can I gain more?

CONSTANT READER.

You are light for your height. A physician will probably advise you what to do.

To the Sporting Editor:

I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, but weigh only 135 pounds. Would like to know how to increase my weight.

E. C. Troy, N. Y.

You are too light. Consult a physician. Regularity in eating and sleeping may help you.

To the Sporting Editor:

What is the proper way to train for a 4-1/2-mile cross-country run? S. T.

Join some athletic club in your vicinity. Several in the Bronx hold nightly runs.

To the Sporting Editor:

A claims that Johnson was champion heavyweight when he fought Jeffries and B says the opposite.

SAM BROYD.

Johnson was champion at the time, Jeffries having previously retired, undefeated, surrendering his claim to the honors.

To the Sporting Editor:

Kindly let me know how I can reach headquarters of the Federal League by letter.

CONSTANT READER.

Send a letter to James A. Gilmore, President of Federal League, Chicago, Ill., or to Charles Woodman, treasurer, Chicago, Ill.

To the Sporting Editor:

(1) What is good time for two and three mile short distance amateur races? (2) A says present Brighton Beach motorhome takes in part of old Brighton race track. B says Brighton put it. "After smoking out everybody you fellows could, who did you find sitting there but Ned Hanlon?"

If it be true that the Feds are after the scalp of Charley Murphy, they are certainly going after it with a vim.

One of the ball players who came back from the conference in Cincinnati says that Joe Tinker and Otto Knebe already have ten of the Cub players and will get more.

It is well known that Tinker has deflected Murphy, personally, ever since the famous Chance-Evers-Tinker squabble that broke up the old combination.

The one thing that puzzles the old-timers, however, is why Tinker took King Cole away from Frank Chance.

Joe and Chance are the closest of friends and were very much interested in the success of each other's team during last season. They were coupled in the betting against Evers when the trouble broke with Murphy.

In the mean time the Pittsburgh Federal League declares that Jimmy Sheppard is ready to sign a contract as manager of that club and will fix up the papers to-day or to-morrow at a big salary.

Sheppard has been in Florida, but hurried away in response to a telegram.

The signing of Sheppard at Pittsburgh, the chances are, will bring on a lawsuit that will put the Feds in a rather unenviable light as a starter.

Desnon Phillips, the old Pirate pitcher, who managed the Pittsburgh Federals last year, claims to have a three-year contract, and if Sheppard gets the job the Desnon says he will use the Feds as a team for breach of contract.

Charley Ebbetts sends a postcard which is postmarked San Juan, Porto Rico.

He says, "Am having the time of my life," which would naturally lead us to believe that he hadn't heard about the loss of Joe Tinker or the offer to Jake Daubert.

Frank Farrell has about recovered from the loss of King Cole. The signed contracts of Fritz Mabel and Ray Caldwell have come in and they are the world and taking things easy if they didn't know their interests were not to be molested?

I admitted I hadn't thought of that, and this man with the mysterious knowledge advised me to "take a tumble to the rear dock."

The man whose scalp the Feds are after," he went on, "is Charley Murphy, and they'll put him out of business as sure as you're born. Everybody in baseball is sore on that fellow, and he would not get much sympathy, even in his own league, if his whole team was smashed.

The White Sox are favoring out there and will not be bothered. If you'll notice, the man Weegham, who is putting up most of the dough for the Chicago Federal League team, is a close personal friend of Comiskey. One of the most popular of his string of eating and drinking places is near the White Sox park. He wants to cut into the business of Murphy and the Cubs—not the White Sox."

Why are they laying off the Giants?" I asked.

"Because it's the popular team in New York, and as the Feds are not going to put a club anywhere around New York there's no use in getting themselves in a fight when they don't have to. Did you notice," he asked, "how quickly Jake Daubert declared himself on the jumping question? The answer to that is that Gilmore and the gang notified the Pittsburgh Federal League that they wouldn't sign any more jumping contracts that were already signed. Daubert didn't have a chance of getting any dough after Gilmore got on the wire."

NED HANLON HAS BANKROLL TO INVEST IN PLAYERS.

The fact that Ned Hanlon is out with a bankroll to invest in players would tend to carry out this belief. Hanlon, when it comes to baseball, is as wise as a tree full of owls, and he is not the least bit afraid of putting up any large chunk of his own money on a proposition that is still uncertain. Incidentally, it is generally conceded that Hanlon is the proudest behind the new league.

As my second proposition

To the Sporting Editor:

Will you kindly let me know if Gunboat Smith ever fought Jim Flynn and who won? And did Williams ever fight Johnny Coulton? Who won?

MAX MILLER.

Gunboat Smith stopped Jim Flynn.

Did Williams have a slight lead over Coulton in no-decision ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden Oct. 10, 1912.

To the Sporting Editor:

I will be nineteen years old in January. I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, weigh 154 pounds. Is that good weight, and if not how can I gain more?

CONSTANT READER.

You are light for your height. A physician will probably advise you what to do.

To the Sporting Editor:

I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, but weigh only 135 pounds. Would like to know how to increase my weight.

E. C. Troy, N. Y.

You are too light. Consult a physician. Regularity in eating and sleeping may help you.

To the Sporting Editor:

What is the proper way to train for a 4-1/2-mile cross-country run? S. T.

Join some athletic club in your vicinity. Several in the Bronx hold nightly runs.

To the Sporting Editor:

A claims that Johnson was champion heavyweight when he fought Jeffries and B says the opposite.

SAM BROYD.

Johnson was champion at the time, Jeffries having previously retired, undefeated, surrendering his claim to the honors.

To the Sporting Editor:

Kindly let me know how I can reach headquarters of the Federal League by letter.

CONSTANT READER.

Send a letter to James A. Gilmore, President of Federal League, Chicago, Ill., or to Charles Woodman, treasurer, Chicago, Ill.

To the Sporting Editor:

(1) What is good time for two and three mile short distance amateur races? (2) A says present Brighton Beach motorhome takes in part of old Brighton race track. B says Brighton

AMATEUR AT TENNIS
OFFICIALLY DEFINED
BY GOVERNING BODY

Action Taken by National Association to Head Off England's Protest.

The proposed rule by which it is expected to clearly define the lawn tennis amateur in this country was issued today by the National Lawn Tennis Association. It is understood to conform sufficiently with the rule of the International Federation of Europe, so as to cause no friction as to Davis Cup matches in the future.

The rule will be offered for adoption at the annual meeting of the national body at the Waldorf-Astoria on Feb. 6. The only opposition to it is expected from invitation and hotel promoted tournaments which, if the rule is favorably acted upon, will have to depend upon local players.

The report of the amateur rule committee and the rule follows:

"In view of the fact that the United States has been foremost in fostering international lawn tennis on a high amateur basis through the competition for the Davis Cup, your committee beg to report that they are unanimous in the opinion that our amateur rules should be in accord with the spirit of the provisions aiming to maintain high amateur standing in the amateur rules of the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

"Under the rules of the International Federation, associations or clubs are permitted to send players as their individual representatives, paying transportation and reasonable hotel (living) expenses. The International Federation events. On account of the great distances between prominent points within the United States and also within many of the States, your committee are unanimous in considering it proper to add to the events to which our associations or clubs are permitted to send their representatives, national, sectional and State championships under the auspices of the U. S. N. L. T. A."

Proposed rule follows:

"An amateur lawn tennis player is one who has not accepted money or traveling or living expenses for playing the game in a tournament, match, or competition; but a player may accept hospitality at a private house, and who is officially selected to represent an association or club in a national, sectional or State championship held under the auspices of the U. S. N. L. T. A., or in a representative team competition, a player may receive from such association or club his necessary traveling and reasonable living expenses. The International Federation rule shall not prevent a player from taking advantage of any reasonable special living or transportation rates which are properly announced and are open to all players entering the tournament."

This young fellow, Guy Cooper, just signed by the Highlanders, has all the earmarks of another Otis Crandall. Though Cooper is a pitcher he walked out with his stick last summer and easily led the Virginia League. He batted at a clip of .300 in thirty-seven games. He also finished third among the winning pitchers. Young Cooper is over six feet in height.

Charley Doolin is pretty badly worried over the condition of his club since the raid of the Federal League by which he lost four of his star men. Doolin is one of the few who did not spend lightly of the new league when it first attracted attention. "Those fellows mean business," he said while in New York, "and they've got the dough."

This raid on the Phillies and the Pirates, by the way, is taken by most of the players to mean a fourth pennant for the Giants. With the Phillies, Pirates and Cubs all shot to pieces it would be a cinch. There is one club, however, that is going to cause trouble. You know, the Federals have not gone after the Braves as yet.

Harry McCormick, manager of the Chattanooga Club, is in town and says that was all a joke about Eddie Grant not being able to find him.

"Why Eddie has been living at the house with me for two weeks," the former pinch hitter declared. "I would like to have Eddie in Chattanooga but I don't know yet whether McGraw will let him go."

Frank Farrell has about recovered from the loss of King Cole. The signed contracts of Fritz Mabel and Ray Caldwell have come in and they are the world and taking things easy if they didn't know their interests were not to be molested?

I admitted I hadn't thought of that, and this man with the mysterious knowledge advised me to "take a tumble to the rear dock."

The man whose scalp the Feds are after," he went on, "is Charley Murphy, and they'll put him out of business as sure as you're born. Everybody in baseball is sore on that fellow, and he would not get much sympathy, even in his own league, if his whole team was smashed.

The White Sox are favoring out there and will not be bothered. If you'll notice, the man Weegham, who is putting up most of the dough for the Chicago Federal League team, is a close personal friend of Comiskey. One of the most popular of his string of eating and drinking places is near the White Sox park. He wants to cut into the business of Murphy and the Cubs—not the White Sox."

Why are they laying off the Giants?" I asked.

"Because it's the popular team in New York, and as the Feds are not going to put a club anywhere around New York there's no use in getting themselves in a fight when they don't have to. Did you notice," he asked, "how quickly Jake Daubert declared himself on the jumping question? The answer to that is that Gilmore and the gang notified the Pittsburgh Federal League that they wouldn't sign any more jumping contracts that were already signed. Daubert didn't have a chance of getting any dough after Gilmore got on the wire."

NED HANLON HAS BANKROLL TO INVEST IN PLAYERS.

The fact that Ned Hanlon is out with a bankroll to invest in players would tend to carry out this belief. Hanlon, when it comes to baseball, is as wise as a tree full of owls, and he is not the least bit afraid of putting up any large chunk of his own money on a proposition that is still uncertain. Incidentally, it is generally conceded that Hanlon is the proudest behind the new league.

As my second proposition

To the Sporting Editor:

Will you kindly let me know if Gunboat Smith ever fought Jim Flynn and who won? And did Williams ever fight Johnny Coulton? Who won?

MAX MILLER.

Gunboat Smith stopped Jim Flynn.

Did Williams have a slight lead over Coulton in no-decision ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden Oct. 10, 1912.

To the Sporting Editor:

I will be nineteen years old in January. I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, weigh 154 pounds. Is that good weight, and if not how can I gain more?

CONSTANT READER.

You are light for your height. A physician will probably advise you what to do.

To the Sporting Editor:

I am 5 feet 9 inches tall, but weigh only 135 pounds. Would like to know how to increase my weight.

E. C. Troy, N. Y.

You are too light. Consult a physician. Regularity in eating and sleeping may help you.

To the Sporting Editor:

What is the proper way to train for a 4-1/2-mile cross-country run? S. T.

Join some athletic club in your vicinity. Several in the Bronx hold nightly runs.

To the Sporting Editor:

A claims that Johnson was champion heavyweight when he fought Jeffries and B says the opposite.

SAM BROYD.

Johnson was champion at the time, Jeffries having previously retired, undefeated, surrendering his claim to the honors.

To the Sporting Editor:

Kindly let me know how I can reach headquarters of the Federal League by letter.

CONSTANT READER.

Send a letter to James A. Gilmore, President of Federal League, Chicago, Ill., or to Charles Woodman, treasurer, Chicago, Ill.

Buckley Wants Winner to Meet Gunboat Smith

Wires Tom O'Rourke To-Day to Fix Up Match Here for Gunner.

By John Pollock.

Tom O'Rourke announced last night that he had received a wire from Jim Buckley, who is in Frisco, asking that Gunboat Smith be matched with the winner of to-morrow night's bout between Battling Levinsky and Porky Flynn. O'Rourke promptly answered Buckley that he was "on." Both O'Rourke and Dan Morgan, manager of Levinsky, have been clamoring for a chance at the "Gunner." O'Rourke, on behalf of Flynn, according to O'Rourke, has never received the boxing to which he is entitled from the boxing fans and for that reason the Boston light heavyweight has never had a real opportunity to show his flat worth. Now he is taking things seriously and under O'Rourke's management and training ideas may make his mark. As a judge of fighters O'Rourke believes he ranks with the best. He insists that Porky Flynn can beat all the white hopes of the present age. If he is Levinsky to-morrow night he will be entitled to consideration.

Bob Fitzsimmons has started the fight to compel the State Athletic Commission to rescind their recent ruling which has barred him from boxing at any of the clubs in this State. He has applied for an injunction to restrain that body from preventing him from meeting opponents at the different clubs. Frank R. O'Neill, chairman of the commission, was served with papers last night, and calls for the commission to appear before Justice Guy in the County Court House on Wednesday morning. Fitz has office visits from Mike Donovan, boxing instructor of the N. Y. A. C. A. J. Drexel Middle of Philadelphia and many others who claim 1-2 is in good enough shape to engage in limited-round bouts.

Joe Fox, English bantamweight, who has won two fights so far in this country, has been booked for two more fights. His first opponent will be Frankie Bradley, the crack bantamweight of Philadelphia, for six rounds at the Olympia A. A. of Philadelphia on Jan. 19, and the second bout is with Young O'Leary for ten rounds at Easton, Pa., on Jan. 23.

Jim Coffey, the "Dublin Giant," and Jack London, the heavyweight of Seattle, who has fought Sam Langford and other good big fellows, have been matched to meet in the main bout of there will be a revival of football next fall at Manhattan College. The sport was abandoned ten years ago because of a fatal injury to a player. A manager will be elected in a few days and a schedule arranged.

The Walkers Club of America held a walk from City Hall to Coney Island yesterday with forty novices and half as many veterans in the going. The novice squad was in charge of C. E. Nicolls and reached the island in three hours. Each one of the survivors received a bronze medal. All the novices rode home, but the veterans continued the hike back and made City Hall in 2 1/2 hours. Those who walked both ways were J. H. Hocking, P. Heath, G. C. Treffy, J. H. Hoffman, G. C. Treffy Jr., M. Lichtenstein, M. Bates, S. Wiener and P. C. Ashli. The walk next Sunday will be from Van Cortlandt Park to Hastings and back.

Shrout, the giant Pole, who will compete in the international tournament at Madison Square Garden last Wednesday night, will arrive from Europe in

Buckley Wants Winner to Meet Gunboat Smith

Wires Tom O'Rourke To-Day to Fix Up Match Here for Gunner.

By John Pollock.

Tom O'Rourke announced last night that he had received a wire from Jim Buckley, who is in Frisco, asking that Gunboat Smith be matched with the winner of to-morrow night's bout between Battling Levinsky and Porky Flynn. O'Rourke promptly answered Buckley that he was "on." Both O'Rourke and Dan Morgan, manager of Levinsky, have been clamoring for a chance at the "Gunner." O'Rourke, on behalf of Flynn, according to O'Rourke, has never received the boxing to which he is entitled from the boxing fans and for that reason the Boston light heavyweight has never had a real opportunity to show his flat worth. Now he is taking things seriously and under O'Rourke's management and training ideas may make his mark. As a judge of fighters O'Rourke believes he ranks with the best. He insists that Porky Flynn can beat all the white hopes of the present age. If he is Levinsky to-morrow night he will be entitled to consideration.

Bob Fitzsimmons has started the fight to compel the State Athletic Commission to rescind their recent ruling which has barred him from boxing at any of the clubs in this State. He has applied for an injunction to restrain that body from preventing him from meeting opponents at the different clubs. Frank R. O'Neill, chairman of the commission, was served with papers last night, and calls for the commission to appear before Justice Guy in the County Court House on Wednesday morning. Fitz has office visits from Mike Donovan, boxing instructor of the N. Y. A. C. A. J. Drexel Middle of Philadelphia and many others who claim 1-2 is in good enough shape to engage in limited-round bouts.

Joe Fox, English bantamweight, who has won two fights so far in this country, has been booked for two more fights. His first opponent will be Frankie Bradley, the crack bantamweight of Philadelphia, for six rounds at the Olympia A. A. of Philadelphia on Jan. 19, and the second bout is with Young O'Leary for ten rounds at Easton, Pa., on Jan. 23.

Jim Coffey, the "Dublin Giant," and Jack London, the heavyweight of Seattle, who has fought Sam Langford and other good big fellows, have been matched to meet in the main bout of there will be a revival of football next fall at Manhattan College. The sport was abandoned ten years ago because of a fatal injury to a player. A manager will be elected in a few days and a schedule arranged.